Dear Mr. Proby:

I want to thank you for letting us be the first elementary school to visit the Emergency Operation Center. It was amazing to actually sit in the seats of those many important people. You taught us about what your job was and how you saved many different lives. I had also learned some safety tips when a hurricane takes over. You have to get food and water to have something to eat so you won't starve. Maybe try to have a first aid kit in case someone gets injured or hurt. I really like the room people work in, because you have wide screens so you can see what different things is happening around the world. I think now when I grow up, I would love to work at the EOC. I think it is my dream.

Sincerely,
Adrianna Weber
